

Heather M. Fehn
Chief of Staff and Secretary to the Board of Trustees
The College of New Jersey

Heather Fehn has served as the Chief of Staff and Secretary to the Board of Trustees in the Office of the President at The College of New Jersey since April 1996. She graduated in 1994 from The College of New Jersey (TCNJ) with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and in 1996 with a Master of Arts in Counseling and Personnel Services. During her time at the College, Heather has served two presidents and over 30 trustees. She has facilitated the work of 15 presidential/executive level searches, has served as an adjunct instructor in the First Seminar Program at TCNJ teaching courses on student leadership, and as an advisor for the Hillel/Jewish Student Union.

As a member of the Board Professionals Leadership Group (BPLG) of the Association of Governing Board's since 2002, Heather was elected Chair for 2010-2011. She chaired the committee coordinating the 2009 national conference and presents regularly on governance, the use of technology, and on presidential and executive level searches. She currently serves as a member of the Professional Development Committee. Heather currently serves as Chair-elect of the National Association of Presidential Assistants in Higher Education (NAPAHE), chaired the organization's 2015 National Conference Committee and coordinated the programs for three national conferences as chair the Content Committee from 2011-2014.

Heather was elected in 2010 to serve as a member of the board of the Har Sinai Congregation in Pennington, New Jersey, and was elected to serve as a member of the congregation's Executive Board in 2011. She currently serves as president of the congregation, having been elected for three consecutive years in 2013, 2014 and 2015. Heather was elected in 2012 to serve as a board member of Woods Resources, an organization based in Langhorne, Pennsylvania providing support and services to children and adults with special needs and challenges.